Journey of Northern Wonders

From the misty mountains of Chiang Mai to the legendary Golden Triangle, this five-day journey unveils Northern Thailand's spiritual heart and cultural treasures. Wander through sacred temples, stroll vibrant handicraft villages, and marvel at architectural wonders like the White Temple. Encounter majestic elephants, soak in natural hot springs, and cruise along the Mekong River where three countries meet. This is Northern Thailand at its most authentic—exotic, enchanting, and unforgettable.

Tour Highlights

Climb to Wat Phra That Doi Suthep Temple, Northern Thailand's most revered Buddhist landmark with panoramic city views

Experience Chiang Mai Night Safari, an after-dark adventure into the wild

Visit Maesa Elephant Camp and watch the incredible talent of Thailand's gentle giants

Immerse in floral beauty at Sai Nam Phueng Orchid Farm, a paradise of vibrant blooms

Marvel at the White Temple (Wat Rong Khun), a contemporary masterpiece of Thai art and architecture

Explore the House of Opium Museum, uncovering the history of the opium trade

Itinerary

Day 1 | Departure for Chiang Mai

Depart on your international flight to Chiang Mai, Thailand's northern cultural hub. Enjoy world-class service on board as your adventure begins.

Overnight on the flight

Day 2 | Arrival in Chiang Mai – A Spiritual Welcome

Upon arrival at Chiang Mai Airport (CNX), meet your guide at Gate 2 for a warm welcome and hotel transfer. For guests arriving before 1:00 PM, enjoy a complimentary half-day tour featuring the revered Wat Phra That Doi Suthep Temple, perched atop a mountain with panoramic city views after ascending its 306 symbolic steps. Continue to Bo-Sang Handicrafts Centre, where skilled artisans craft exquisite Thai umbrellas and silk works. As night falls, venture into the wild at the Chiang Mai Night Safari, an extraordinary experience where you can observe exotic animals under a starlit sky.

Dinner: Chinese-style cuisine

Hotel: Kantary Hills Hotel Chiang Mai or similar (5-star)

Day 3 | Elephants, Orchids & the White Temple

Begin your day at the Maesa Elephant Camp, where gentle giants showcase their intelligence and charm through fascinating performances. Stroll through the Sai Nam Phueng Orchid Farm, a vibrant paradise blooming with hundreds of orchid varieties. Next, explore the cultural wonder of the Long Neck Thasut Village, home to the iconic long-neck Karen tribe. Journey onward to the Mae Khachan Hot Spring, perfect for a relaxing break, before heading to Chiang Rai's masterpiece—the White Temple (Wat Rong Khun), an awe-inspiring work of contemporary Thai art gleaming in pure white.

Breakfast: Hotel buffet

Lunch: Buffet or Chinese cuisine

Dinner: Chinese cuisine

Hotel: Riva Vista Riverfront Resort Chiang Rai or similar (5-star)

Day 4 | Golden Triangle Mystique

Travel to the storied Golden Triangle, where Thailand meets Laos and Myanmar. Begin with a visit to the Mae Sai Border, Thailand's northernmost town, and take in the striking views of the Golden Buddha Statue overlooking the Mekong River. Next, deepen your understanding of the region's complex history at the House of Opium Museum, where immersive exhibits recount the rise and impact of the opium trade, its cultural and social consequences, and the efforts to curb its influence. Learn how this historically significant trade shaped the lives of local communities and the development of the Golden Triangle region. Afterward, enjoy serene views along the Mekong Riverside, where the gentle river breeze carries stories of trade, tradition, and the meeting of three nations. In the evening, return to Chiang Mai for a restful night at your luxury hotel.
